

Directorate for Police Community Relations

Quality Policy Statement

The Directorate for Police Community Relations is committed to strengthen its role to take the lead in the QUAD concept of policing in the pursuit of an ideal, responsive and dynamic Police-Community Partnership to sustain a cohesive public trust and confidence to the PNP.

To attain this, the DPCR commits to

- Formulate, review, and monitor policies, programs, and activities guided by the aims of Police Community Affairs and Development (PCAD) Master Plan “TAGATAGUYOD” to engage, influence and lead our communities with timely, relevant, and legitimate information to support and trust the PNP and the government in resolving social issues and concerns;
- Ensure that PCAD-related programs and activities are gender-responsive and promote sensitivity among religious affiliations and cultural orientations;
- Promote inclusive growth and professionalism, culture of excellence, competence and integrity of our personnel through capability enhancement programs;
- Assist PNP policy-makers in developing plans to promote citizen participation on law enforcement and public order; and
- Continuously improve our Quality Management System in compliance with existing regulatory, statutory, and PNP laws as well as international standards.

“Our Community, Our Priority.”

RHODEL O SERMONIA
Police Major General
The Director for Police
Community Relations